Charter Employees Give Generously to The United Way of Central Massachusetts

Charter donates more than $13,000 to Worcester non-profit organizations

Worcester, MA – Employees of Charter Communications concluded their internal United Way fundraising drive with the presentation of a check for more than $13,000 to the United Way of Central Massachusetts. A check presentation was held at Charter’s Worcester office.

“Charter strongly believes in the United Way philosophy of giving back to the community,” said Greg Garabedian, Vice President and General Manager for Charter’s New England operations. “Even during challenging times, our employees continued to demonstrate generosity. Charter also matched a portion of the employee donations, making employee donations even more powerful.”

“We can’t thank Charter enough for their generous donation and annual support of the United Way,” said Tim Garvin, President and CEO, United Way of Central Massachusetts. “The United Way campaign is key for our continuing support for many fine community organizations and is an easy way to give back to the community.”
